Veterans Assisted Living Ministry

The VA Ministry is composed of four distinct components which thematically integrate together to form a quality of life support and enhancement system for Veterans and the community in which they live.

Those four distinct components include the following amenities. Together, these facilities meet the residence, health and well being of the Veteran who utilize them.

1. An Assisted Living Guest House
2. A Family Life Facility
3. A Comprehensive Inpatient Rehabilitation Facility (CIRF)
4. Affordable Single Family Residential Living Community.

PEACE

Veterans Assisted Living Ministry

The purpose of the Ecclesia Veteran Housing Ministry is to meet the physical, emotional, and spiritual needs of our Veteran Members and those of the Metropolitan Detroit community, the continental United States, and indeed the world that have the capacity to benefit.

Wise and prudent use of talented people, quality physical resources, and technology are skillfully applied in order to accomplish this end.
